

Pregnant? – Don't Drink Alcohol!

Alcohol consumed by the mother at any time during pregnancy can affect the foetus and result in permanent brain damage and physical abnormalities.

Here are some of the risks:

1 Low birth weight

2

Memory!
Attention!
Coordination!

Mental defects

3

Facial deformities

4

Defects in Kidney function

5

Heart defects

6

Bone
& Joint Defects

7

Learning disabilities

8

Hyperactivity

9

Poor social interaction skills

ALCOHOL & DRUG CONCERNS

 Alcohol and Drug Concerns - Gauteng

Pregnant women should never drink alcohol